Town Hall in Hobbs Friday to Focus on the Proposed SPS Rate Increase

SANTA FE – New Mexico Public Regulation Commissioner Patrick Lyons will hold a town hall in Hobbs to hear opinions from the public regarding the proposed utility rate increase filed with the Commission by SPS.

The Commission will consider the proposed 14.2% rate increase requested by SPS. The case is scheduled to be in front of the Commission on May 15, 2018.

The town hall will be held on Friday, March 23, from 3:00 to 4:30 at the City Commission Chamber at City Hall, 200 East Broadway, Hobbs, New Mexico.

Commissioner Lyons will hold future town hall meetings at various locations in District 2, which comprises the eastern half of the state, with dates and locations to be announced.
